2024 Charlestown Land Trust Farmers Market Rules and Regulations

1. Vendors must supply all required current permits, licenses, sales tax permits, and any other required information for sale of their items. Each vendor is responsible for meeting all applicable state, federal, and local laws and regulations for items they sell. Vendors are responsible for their own insurance. All scales must be certified.
2. The market manager has the authority to mediate and enforce the market rules.
3. Vendors will be assigned a location by the market manager.
4. Vendors must supply their own table, chairs, and a thoroughly secured 10' by 10' tent. A farm or business sign must be clearly displayed. Set-ups should be neat and safe.
5. Vendors are to set up their market sites by 8:45 AM (15 minutes before the scheduled opening).
6. Only clean, fresh quality products are to be sold. No member can buy items and resell them at the market. Members can sell what they grow or products they produce.
7. All approved vendors must commit to and practice a regular schedule of attendance as indicated on their application. A 24-hour notice must be given to the market manager prior to an unscheduled absence.
8. No alcoholic beverages will be allowed.
9. All prices must be posted. Vendors must replace or give money back for any item returned for any reason.
10. The CLT reserves the right to establish a market table to sell local products that would enhance the spirit of the market.
11. Vendors are responsible for keeping a clean booth during market hours and to be sure the area is left clean with all trash removed after the market.
12. All vendors will agree to actively participate in helping each other out to the best of their ability in order to nurture the market community and camaraderie.

Questions and concerns may be directed via email to cltmarketmanagers@gmail.com now or to the Charlestown Land Trust Market Table on Friday mornings once the market opens on Friday, June 21, 2024.
